News from the Director

Happy 2019!! We hope everyone enjoyed time with their family and friends over the break. Thanks to everyone for all your tasty treats and creative gifts! Your generosity and love is greatly appreciated. With the new year we have begun registration for 2019-20. Thanks to all who have already returned their registrations. Classes are filling up fast so if you plan to return to PHCP next year please bring yours in as soon as possible.

Our community Open House is Friday, January 18th please invite your neighbors and friends. If you are able to come for an hour or so, and take a new family around the school, please let our Parent Rep Christine Kaskela know. We are so thankful to have such great families and hard working teachers to make our school excellent. In February PHCP will be hosting a Learning Without Tears Workshop. Our teachers will be getting training in math, literacy and learn some new ideas for writing centers. We are always excited to learn new ways to help our children.

You may have seen some snow and ice skating going on in some of the classrooms. In January the children will learn about winter, animals, hibernation, snow, the weather cycle, outer space and more. Our pre-k and Jr. K classes will also be learning about various artists and creating pieces of art to share during our second annual Spring Arts Night in March. Please make sure to send your child with gloves and hats, recess is a very important part of our day. Weather permitting the classes will go outside. Please label winter clothing. We have a lost and found under the bench that is across from the office.

The staff and I are looking forward to the new things God will be doing in 2019! If you have questions about anything please feel free come and talk to me.

God's Blessings, Christine Jenne

Moms Connect

Join us beginning Wednesday, January 23rd as we embark on our NEW study "Just Open the Door" by Jen Schmidt.

For many of us, inviting people into our lives and homes feels more like inviting judgment on our entertaining skills and stress on our already maxed-out schedules. This study sets out to reframe how we think about hospitality and to equip us to walk a road of welcome in our daily lives. Jen Schmidt knows that every time we choose open-door living—whether in our homes or by taking hospitality on the road just like Jesus—those we invite in get to experience the lived-out Gospel, our kids grow up in a life-lab of generosity, and we trade insecurity for connection.

We will continue meeting the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month. Please join us and invite your friends. Moms Connect is open to all moms of young children in our community. Free childcare, coffee & prayer.

Please contact Amy Waddill if interested and to reserve childcare. Call or text 904-651-3389; or amywaddill@gmail.com

Parent Group News

Hello and welcome back PHCP families! We hope you had a relaxing and joyful break! December was a busy and fun month for the parent group. We had a great turnout for the greenery fundraiser and hope everyone enjoyed their wreaths, sprays and other fresh greenery over the holidays. A special thanks to those that helped us get everyone their orders, we couldn't have done it without you! We had a great time hosting the cookie exchange at Allison's house and hope those that attended enjoyed the good company and yummy cookies! If you couldn't make it to the cookie exchange, don't worry we will be hosting more socials this year!

Looking forward into the new year, we have so many exciting things happening at PHCP. We are hosting a shoe drive fundraiser through Shoes with Heart that will begin on January 28th. If you have any shoes that you are trying to get rid of please hold onto them and be on the lookout for the donation box!

Our first Moe's Restaurant Night is coming up on Weds, 1/23 from 5-8 pm! We will be handing out flyers that you will need to present to the cashier at checkout. We will be receiving 40% of the proceeds and it was such a fun event last year! Thank you to Hayley Platt for organizing!

Our teacher appreciation week is coming up February 19th-22nd. This is a really fun week where we honor our children's teachers through personalized gifts, a luncheon and fun activities. Thank you to Jen McGinnis, Lindsay Bennett and Katie Wright for organizing this special week! More info to come soon!

Spring Spectacular- Saturday April 27th! We are looking for lots of extra help planning our end of year community wide festival! If you are interested, please let Allison or myself know.

All the best,
Christine and Allison
